International Scout & Guide Camp

International Day - Visitors

Come and experience the First UK International Scout and Guide Camp of the new Scouting centenary.

On Sunday 27th July Campdowne 2008 (CD08) will welcome Cubs, Brownies, Beavers, Rainbows and staff families to experience the international adventure that is Campdowne.

There will be a wide range of events and activities to keep you busy and allow you to experience the Campdowne atmosphere first hand including:

- ✓ Wandering round the explorer themed subcamps
- ✓ Go shopping for souvenirs in the Providore
- ✓ Relax and grab a bite to eat at the Discovery Plaza
- ✓ Take part in special International Day events
- ✓ Watch Scouting and Guiding demos from over 22 countries

Cost: £3 per adult & £2 under 14 (Under 5s FREE)

We have a limited number of visitors allowed on the site so bookings must be made in advance (payment on the door).

In 2004, hundreds of people came to visit and this year we are making it even easier for you to guarantee your place and get ready for a great day.

See below on how to order. But don't miss out – the closing date for ordering is Monday 14th July.

The CD08 International Day will be open between 10am and 5.30pm.

If you have any questions about the International Day please e-mail info@campdowne.org or call 01959 572 121.

Height restrictions will apply on activities and the details of the day are subject to change due to circumstances beyond our control.

How to Book

If you have downloaded this flyer from the CD08 website please return to the front page and follow the link to 'Visit Us on International Day' to reserve your tickets.

If you have received this flyer from someone else please visit www.campdowne.org and follow the link above to reserve your tickets.

If you do not have internet access please try to find someone who may be able to help you. We are trying to reduce the paper use/waste at CD08 by employing electronic methods where possible.
